

July 1

Please pray for the listeners of our children's programs in Moldova. About 70% of our listeners are from Muslim countries, and many parents write to us in the comments, asking questions about faith and about God. May the Word of God work in their hearts, and may God also give us new ideas for a variety of children's programs.

July 2

Please pray for the spiritual growth, creative vision, and health of the FEBC Kyrgyzstan team. They are facing great challenges and opposition, but their ministry is producing great fruit. May the Lord deepen their relationship with Him, strengthen their faith, and fill their hearts with wisdom and inspiration.

July 3

Please pray for FEBC-Russia as we continue ministering the Gospel in this uncertain season. There has been an increasing pressure put on religious organizations by the government. Please pray for God to give wisdom, protection, and courage to those who continue serving faithfully.

July 4

Please continue to pray for Alexey from Russia. He is going through a difficult trial and needs God's strength, comfort, and support. We are deeply grateful for everyone who continues to pray for him.

July 5

Please pray for Mark from Ukraine, the son of Eduard and Nadia, who was in a car accident. This is a very difficult time for him and his family. Please ask God to give him healing and strength, and to comfort and support his parents.

July 6

Please pray for Natalia from Russia, the wife of Oleg, who is preparing for surgery. The situation is not simple, and she truly needs prayer support. Please pray for God's protection, wisdom for the doctors, and a successful recovery.

July 7

Please pray for Shakhnoza, one of our listeners from Khorezm, Uzbekistan. Her heart is open to Jesus, and she has already learned how to pray. Please pray for healing for her sick husband and son, and that through God's mercy this whole family would come to faith in Christ.

July 8

Please pray for Yusuf, one of our listeners in Kazakhstan. He came to our livestream with many questions, later met with believers in Almaty, and repented, accepting Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. Please pray that his new faith would grow strong and deep.

July 9

Please pray for comfort for our team in Ukraine and for the family of Halyna, one of our prayer evangelists. Even while battling cancer, she continued supporting people almost until her final days. Please pray that God would comfort everyone who loved her.

July 10

Please pray for Rebekah, one of our listeners from Moldova. She repented and began the journey of fighting addiction after realizing its sinfulness and destructive influence on her life. Please pray that God would give her strength, freedom, and victory in Christ.

July 11

Please pray for Rayhona, one of our listeners from Bukhara, Uzbekistan. She is a 32-year-old single mother going through a very hard season, trying to care for her son without stable work or support. Please pray that God would provide for her, heal her wounded heart, and lead her to Jesus.

July 12

Please pray for Bolat, one of our listeners from Karaganda, Kazakhstan. During a livestream, he asked about God's grace, and as our team shared the Gospel, God touched his heart. Please pray that the Lord would strengthen his faith and lead him to a local church.

July 13

Please pray for our team members in Ukraine who have lost loved ones during the war. Many are carrying deep grief while continuing to serve. Please pray that God would give strength, comfort, and hope to each family.

July 14

Please pray for the listeners of our young influencer Chris from Moldova. Recently, he has started receiving many messages and comments from people struggling with suicidal thoughts. Please pray that God would give Chris wisdom, sensitivity, and strength as he responds to these listeners, and that those who are hurting would find hope, help, and life in Christ.

July 15

Please pray for Imona, one of our listeners in Uzbekistan, who is sincerely interested in Jesus and wants to know more. We encouraged her to visit a local church and ask for a printed Bible. Please pray that God would give her courage to take this step and open her heart to Christ.

July 16

Please pray for Murat, one of our listeners in Kazakhstan. For 17 years he practiced namaz, a ritual Muslim prayer, but still feels emptiness in his heart. Now he is joining our Bible study community, so please pray that Jesus would fill him with truth and peace.

July 17

Please pray for Ukraine's energy system. Our team in Ukraine needs stable electricity to continue serving, broadcasting, supporting listeners, and simply functioning. Please pray for protection, restoration, and strength.

July 18

Please pray for Ivan, one of our influencers from Moldova. Through his videos, many young people are repenting and accepting Christ right in the comments. Please pray that God would strengthen Ivan, give him wisdom in responding to them, and help these young people grow in their new faith.

July 19

Please pray for Bahoroy, one of our listeners in Uzbekistan, whose heart is very open to the Gospel. We sent her an electronic Bible and a film about Jesus. Please pray that the Holy Spirit would touch her deeply and lead her to repentance and faith.

July 20

Please pray for Bagylan, a 16-year-old listener from Aktobe, Kazakhstan. He wants to believe in Jesus, but fear and pressure from his background are holding him back. Please pray that God would remove fear and lead him to the truth.

July 21

Please pray for Natalia, one of FEBC-Ukraine's prayer evangelists. She has personally ministered to many of our listeners. Please pray for her newborn baby, and for the Lord to bless her with health and a quick recovery.

July 22

Please pray for one of our listeners in Uzbekistan who wrote and shared very painful thoughts about not wanting to live. We are deeply concerned for this person. Please pray for protection, hope, and that the Good News of Jesus would reach their heart in this dark moment.

July 23

Please pray for Tilek, one of our listeners in Kazakhstan. After watching our podcast, he wanted to meet our team, asked many sincere questions, and received a Bible in Kazakh. Please pray that the seed planted in his heart would grow into true faith.

July 24

Please pray for everyone connected with the FEBC-Ukraine team who is serving in the military. May God protect them and bring them home safe. Please also pray for peace and strength for their families.

July 25

Please pray for all our listeners in Uzbekistan who heard the Gospel this month. In one week, in addition to the thousands of people who watched our programs, we were able to share the Gospel directly with around 30 people received the message about Jesus, and many were sent the film about Christ. Please pray that their hearts would remain open, and that they would come to repentance, faith, and a church community.

July 26

Please pray for Ulan, who faithfully runs our live streams in Kazakhstan. Please pray for his health, rest, and strength as he is going through a difficult time.

July 27

Please pray for Mariia, one of our listeners in Ukraine who contacted our prayer helpline. She lost her home and is alone in a new place, but recently visited a church with one of our broadcasters. ‘This was exactly what I needed. I felt like my heart was being healed while I was there.’ Please pray for Mariia to come to know Jesus as Lord and Savior.

July 28

Please pray for Hayot, one of our team members in Uzbekistan. He asks prayer for the repentance of his parents and for God’s guidance in evangelism. Please pray that the Lord would lead him to people who are truly searching for Him and are open to hearing the Gospel.

July 29

Please pray for an 18-year-old listener Oleg in Ukraine who was touched by our videos and live broadcasts. He found a local church and is now preparing for water baptism. Please pray that his faith would grow and that many more listeners would come to Jesus.

July 30

Please pray for Ester, one of our team members in Uzbekistan. She asks prayer for a home and for her children’s education. Please also pray for each of her children to come to know the Lord.

July 31

Please pray for Maksym, a wounded soldier in Ukraine who was touched through our media ministry and later received a Bible. God is working in his heart through his wife and through our team. Please pray for him and for every soldier who hears our programs, that they would meet Christ personally.
